

Best-Selling Author Terrance Dean Issues Statement Re: Passing of E. Lynn Harris

New York – “I am deeply shocked and saddened by the sudden passing of New York Times best-selling author, E. Lynn Harris. He was a dear friend and mentor who paved the way for authors such as myself.

E. Lynn broke ground and created a whole new genre of writing and the literary world will be void by this tragedy. His writings not only impacted the African American community, but the entire world.”
