Musician, artist, and producer Alissia has released her debut single, "Hypnotic Night," featuring Nile Rodgers and EARTHGANG. The single straddles the worlds of funk, hip-hop, and R&B, held together by a groove instigated by Alissia's bass. It is a big year for the artist who has made history as the ninth woman to be nominated for Producer of the Year, Non-Classical, at the 67th Annual GRAMMY Awards. The honor comes after years of working with the likes of anderson.paak, Coco Jones, Kaytranada, Calvin Harris, Cee-Lo Green, Mary J. Blige and more. She also had the blessing to be recognized by Prince, Quincy Jones, and Bootsy Collins, the latter of whom she earned her first executive producer credit for work on his World Wide Funk album. Alissia has also shared behind-the-scenes footage of her working with Rodgers and EARTHGANG in the studio on "Hypnotic Night." Check out the single via Amazon and see the BTS video below.

Tommy Newport Bands Together With EarthGang For Stargazer

Musician Tommy Newport adds another dimension to his indie-rock with Atlanta hip-hop duo EarthGang. "Stargazer" is a tactful tribute to a fake relationship and the 360° VR lyric video is a stenciled trip through orange clouds into a hot pink city. Newport's Ultra Mango EP was released earlier this year and "Stargazer" is his first new track. He says,

"Stargazer was written in LA & I'm honored to have my first released collaboration be with the insanely talented EARTHGANG. Once I laid down the hook I knew it felt right. Thereâ€™s not a dull moment in this song and they absolutely killed it.”

The Kansas by way of Manchester, England native has been gaining ground since he emerged with “I Forgive You” in 2018. The lyrics read like a survival manual for the heart but Newport and EarthGang have created one of the most unassuming songs about heartbreak.
