

Media Questions Of The Week

Is Marvel replacing Chadwick Boseman in Black Panther 2 with Namor or Shuri from the Marvel Comic Universe because of concerns about his health?

Y'all got to understand these fantasy features work two ways . Pop people don't wanna work wit us unless we sittin in that top 40 or unless it's a white rapper .. prove me wrong <https://t.co/aYJh11PCto>

– Wale (@Wale) April 18, 2020

Did Wale reveal the truth about pop artists only collaborating with rappers when they have a Top 40 hit or are white?

Is this the end of Ebony magazine now that the website is gone?

Media Questions Of The Week

Is Mathew Knowles correct about colorism benefitting Beyonce and hurting Kelly Rowland careers?

Does Lena Waithe have a valid criticism of Denzel Washington and Will Smith for “not financing Black independent films?”

What is the future of Ebony and Jet magazines after the recent firing of their staff of writers? And what will happen to the Ebony photo archive that Mellody Hobson and George Lucas are trying to save?

Media Questions Of The Week

Who will be the first artist to receive a Grammy for a streaming-only release now that they are being recognized?

What is the release date for Tupac’s All Eyez On Me biopic?

What will be the fate of Ebony and Jet magazines now that they are no longer owned by The Johnson family?

Media Questions Of The Week

Why is Russell Simmons's Rushcard causing so many cardholders grief?

Is the Ebony magazine cover about the effects of the Bill Cosby scandal on the perception of the Black family too racy?

Is Whoopi Goldberg's criticism of Viola Davis's Emmy acceptance speech on point about Black women always having had opportunities to work in television and Hollywood?