

Rapper Big Pooh & Focus: RPM Album Stream

Rapper Big Pooh and his Focus-assisted album RPM came out today. RPM comes after a three-year break when Pooh was last heard on Home Sweet Home with Nottz. The artist who took the stage with his Little Brother brethren for the first time in 10 years explained his absence in a statement:

“I wasn’t in a great place, creatively, for a while. I took some time to step back and concentrate on other endeavors and manage other artists. After talking about working on a project for a couple of years, Focus and I decided to finally make thoughts become things. Our ‘thing’ turned out to be RPM.”

In addition to maintaining his solo career Rapper Big Pooh has been managing Dreamville artist Lute, working as a DJ and running his distribution company Common Cents Media Group.

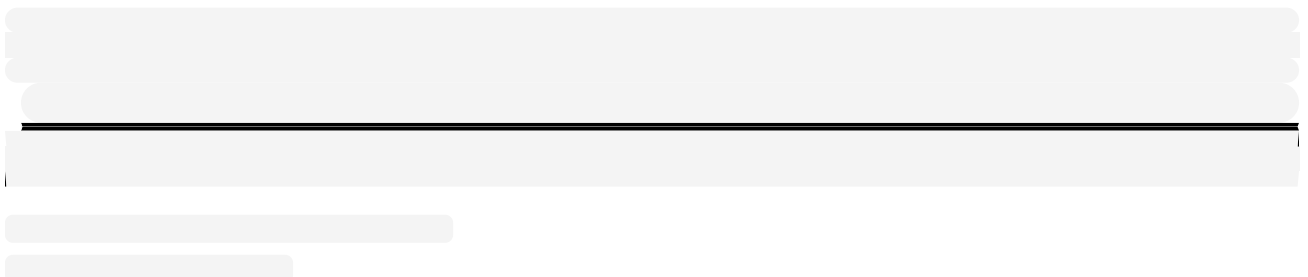

Rapper Big Pooh Shares Pray Or Prey Feat. Cocoa Sarai Produced By Focus

Rapper Big Pooh recently announced his next album, RPM, on social media after Little Brother had a reunion in their native Durham, North Carolina at the end of September. It was the first time the group had performed together in 10 years and it happened at the The Art Of Cool Festival. Today Pooh shares, “Pray Or Prey” featuring Cocoa Sarai with production from Focus. RPM (Rapper Pooh Music) comes out this Friday.Â
