

P-Funk Keyboardist Bernie Worrell Has Cancer Diagnosis

Bernie Worrell, who is a founding member of Parliament-Funkadelic and has played on numerous classics from the band, has been diagnosed with stage-four liver and lung cancer. Worrell's goal is to heal but also to release his Retrospectives album quickly before his health worsens. There is an Indiegogo campaign to raise $10,000 for the project with 2 weeks and about $500 to go.

Funkadelic-Ain't That Funkin' Kind Of Hard On You Featuring Kendrick Lamar

"Ain't That Funkin' Kind Of Hard On You" is from Funkadelic's 2014 First Ya Gotta Shake The Gate. Dance music legend Louie Vega remixed the song with a verse from Kendrick Lamar and it's from his EP of the song's remixes that came out today.

Funkadelic & Soul Clap Featuring Sly Stone-In Da Kar Official Video

[youtube id="5wp82HtSzIk"]

Boston house duo Soul Clap and Funkadelic released their four-song EP featuring Sly Stone on keys back in April. Gabe Munitz-Alessio directed the video for “In Da Kar” using live video and claymation to tell the ugly story of the oil industry.

The Mothership Returns-Give Up The Funk (Tear The Roof Off The Sucker) Live At Glastonbury

[youtube id="MRKqCXGsILg"]

George Clinton took his P-Funk collective, The Mothership Returns to Glastonbury and this is their performance of “Give Up The Funk (Tear The Roof Off The Sucker).)”