

Listen: Noise Cans Feat. merchant and Jane Macgizmo- Can't Be Moved

Bermudian producer Noise Cans collaborates with merchant and vocalist Jane Macgizmo on the club track "Can't Be Moved." Noise Cans' use of a classic house beat is embedded with cymbal crashes adding more energy and drama to the song. The video is a colorful excursion outside with Noise Cans maintaining his anonymity by wearing a modernized Gombey mask as Macgizmo sings and walks through the park. Noise Cans was ironic when he called the single "Can't Be Moved" because the title goes completely against the music's command.
