

Jeru The Damaja Looks At Power (Official Video)

[youtube id="46x7-F37_s4"] Jeru The Damaja returns with his new single "Power" and the official video. The Brooklyn veteran has questions about the state of Blackness in America. He points out how Black men are still dealing with an actual lack of power and mentions dead leaders like Martin Luther King Jr. and Huey Newton.Â But his words about the image of Black men give way to his ultimate understanding that unity among all people is the real enemy of racism. His frustration with the status quo has him sitting in a dark room trying to get out a prescribed box seeking humanity.Â
