

Johnny Popcorn Celebrates New Life With Get Away To Love Video

Jani Coral of Johnny Popcorn shares the journey of her pregnancy in the video for "Get Away To Love." The singer appears on the beach, in the studio and in everyday life. Band member directs the video and makes a couple of quick appearances. Coral's nine-months preparing for a new birth looks like a carefree party. At the end of the video, she holds her child that was born in January of last year. Hezekiah is currently taking suggestions from fans for help with the setlist for an upcoming live stream. Fans can look at Johnny Popcorn's discography on their Bandcamp page and send the suggestions to info@solgardenstudio.org.

Johnny Popcorn Releases W.A.N.A. & Video For I Own Everything

Johnny Popcorn is back with their We Are Not Animals EP, a fearless palette of funk, rock and soul. The video for “I Own Everything” has the band performing most of the time in front of an American flag while various video clips of police aggressively pursuing Black citizens blend into the larger scenes. They remove their rings which also have flags on them and this movement and the video overall is about the uncertain relationship between People of Color and the police. Vocalist Hezekiah Davis says the song’s “approach is country reminiscent of Johnny Cash and June Carter.” Stream and purchase W.A.N.A. now.Â

[youtube id="thAT7mjhjRQ"]

Johnny Popcorn Preparing To Release Totem 2.0 & Video For Cold World

Johnny Popcorn's Totem 2.0 is the answer to Totem Pole that was released last year. The Totem 2.0 EP comes out officially on January 1st and can be streamed now. The video for "Cold World" is an eye-catching colorful visualizer.

[youtube id="exSod29M2wI"]

Johnny Popcorn: Put Your Computer To Sleep Official Video

[youtube id="nliuvxzlqW4"] Hezekiah and Jani Coral of Johnny Popcorn want people to shut down their devices and go outside in their video for "Put Your Computer To Sleep." The duo performs on a stage outside of Philadelphia's City Hall and all kinds of people are there having fun. "Put Your Computer To Sleep" is from Johnny Popcorn's Totem Pole album. Hezekiah is currently working on new music with Bilal and Tone Whitefield.