

Carl Craig Presents Detroit Love

Carl Craig takes his Detroit Love techno and house lineup to Washington D.C. on November 19th.

Carl Craig Will Bring Detroit Love Lineup With Juan Atkins Feat. Milan Ariel, Stacey Hotwaxx Hale & Kevin Saunderson's Inner City To Washington D.C.

Carl Craig is taking his Detroit Love DJ set to Washington D.C. for a rare event at The Depot on Saturday, November 19th. Craig will be joined by Detroit's Godmother of House Stacey "Hotwaxx" Hale, Kevin Saunderson's Inner City and Juan Atkins feat. Milan Ariel. Detroit Love is about bringing together and supporting the sounds of Detroit and taking a little of the techno brotherhood to clubs and festivals the world over. Craig says, "Love is what I have for my city, Detroit."

Craig is one of the founders of The Movement Music Festival in Detroit and has released over 100 electronic music tracks and albums on his influential Planet E label including his Innerzone Orchestra collaboration with Herbie Hancock. Kevin Saunderson's Inner City hit paydirt in the '80s with the anthems “Big Fun” and “Good Life.” He also released groundbreaking singles under his many aliases including Tronikhouse, E-Dancers and Reese & Santonio. His son Dantiez Saunderson is now a member of Inner City.

Kevin and Dantiez Saunderson

Stacey “Hotwaxx” Hale is the first woman to play house music on Detroit radio. She made a name for herself in the city for her flawless mixing and for winning several DJ competitions. Her legacy continues with current residencies at Spotlite and Marble Bar.

Stacey "Hotwaxx" Hale

Juan Atkins is known as one of the Belleville Three which is comprised of him, Saunderson and Derrick May for creating Detroit Techno. Atkins is responsible for seminal tracks like "Cosmic Car," "Alleys Of Your Mind" and "Clear" as Cybotron. He will be joined by his daughter Milan Ariel for a live set.

Juan Atkins

Milan Ariel

The doors open at 10 PM and the party ends at 5 AM. Tickets are available here. The show is presented by Flash DC and will be one of the last before The Depot warehouse closes on New Year's Day.

@kickmagdotnet

*Carl Craig Detroit Love TV Bar Detroit 9/25/22 #kickmag
#Detroit #Detroittechno #Detroitlove #CarlCraig #TVbar
#washingtondc #housemusic #Derrickmay*

? original sound – kickmagdotnet

The Belleville Three (Kevin

Saunderson, Juan Atkins, Derrick May) Reunite For Movement In Detroit 2017

Kevin Saunderson, Juan Atkins and Derrick May also known as The Belleville Three will reunite for Movement in Detroit 2017. The three Detroit techno pioneers started making music when they attended Belleville High School. Their electronic sound was championed by legendary Detroit DJ The Electrifying Mojo and was heard in clubs like The Music Institute. Detroit techno spread and became internationally recognized and copied by countless artists.

The three of them have not performed together since 2010 at the Awakenings Festival in the Netherlands. Saunderson recently rebooted his E-Dancer moniker and released new music. May presented his music with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at Chene Park in 2015. And Atkins had an after party for Kraftwerk two years ago when they made a rare Detroit appearance.

Detroit's Movement Electronic Music Festival will take place May 27-29 2017 and tickets are on sale now.

Keep Up With Kevin Saunderson On Social Media:

Facebook | Twitter | Soundcloud

Keep Up With Juan Atkins On Social Media:

Facebook | Twitter

Keep Up With Derrick May On Social Media:

Facebook | Twitter

Jus Friends Presents The Detroit House and Techno All Stars in Support of Flint 2

Â On Friday, April 8, 2016 from 8 pm to 2 am at TV Lounge in Detroit, Michigan, Jus Friends presents the Detroit Techno All Stars in Support of Flint 2 for a special event, “Something in the Water (Does Not Compute) 2”. In response to the Flint water crisis, the newly formed initiative together with prominent Detroit promoters collaborate to raise awareness in the electronic music community while providing world-class entertainment from Detroit’s best and brightest “All Stars”. The location offers 3 stages of music with a line-up of over 35 DJs and artists. Highlights of this event include appearances by the Godfather of techno Juan Atkins, Omar S, John Collins of Underground Resistance, and Minus artist Asher Perkins. Live acts, vocalists, and on-site live painting create a unique experience. $7000 was raised at the first installment of “Something in The Water (Does Not Compute)” on March 11, 2016. This amount made possible the donation of a semi-truck of bottled water from Absopure to the people of Flint. 100% of the proceeds from “Something in the Water (Does Not Compute) 2” will also directly benefit Flint through bottled water donations, with any remainder going to the Child Health and Development Fund. Tickets are $10, pre-sale online. The sponsors and promoters invite you, Detroit dignitaries, friends and community to attend this very special benefit in support of Flint’s water crisis within the groovy atmosphere of internationally renowned TV Lounge.

Facebook Event Page: <https://www.facebook.com/-events/230962353923305/>

Tickets: <http://www.wantickets.com/Events/202586/Something-In--The-Water-Does-Not-compute-Pt2/>

Email: maggie@auxeticdetroit.com

Address: TV Lounge, 2548 Grand River Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, 48201