

Locksmith Connects With Neelam & K.A.A.N. For DOPE & Ramp Up

Locksmith released The Lock Sessions Volume 2 this past spring and has continued to share more new music. He had guests on that project including Jon Connor, Rass Kass and Xzibit. In the past month he dropped the pro-Black “DOPE” which features Neelam, who is becoming known as the only Black woman Muslim rapper out now. “Ramp Up” is a collaboration with Maryland native K.A.A.N. who adds his fire-spitting delivery to Locksmith’s verbal artillery. Both singles are lyrically stacked and have videos. Locksmith’s proves again that his pen is mighty and uncompromised.
