

Throwback: K.P. & Envyi-Swing My Way

[youtube id="PEangIPyHZQ"] K.P. (Kia Phillips) & Envyi's (Susan Hedgepeth) "Swing My Way" was another admission into Atlanta's forever-growing hip-hop scene in 1998. K.P. and Envyi were individual artists who collaborated on "Swing My Way" and created an instant party classic and opened the way for other Atlanta artists. Polow Da Don appeared in the video, Algebra Blessett sang background vocals and Mixzo, who has worked for Bone Crusher, David Banner and Sandra St. Victor produced "Swing My Way." Ludacris wrote lyrics to the remix produced by Carl Mo who became famous for producing Outkast's "The Way You Move." K.P. & Envyi did not record together again but they performed for the 2011 A-Town Legends concert in Atlanta.
