New York, NY – This Wednesday, September 10th, Kidz In The Hall™s second video off their critically acclaimed album, The In Crowd, will world premier on the biggest video network in the world. MTV™s popular countdown show, TRL, will give a “first look” to “Love Hangover,” the second single off Kidz In The Hall™s sophomore album, released on Major League/Duck Down Records. The song and video features rising superstar and UK songstress Estelle, who linked up with Naledge and Double 0 last year while recording the group™s album.

Earlier this year, Kidz In The Hall released their first single and video, “Drivin™ Down the Block,” which crept all the way up to #6 on TRL™s countown, breaking ground and leading the way for a generation of new, young, independent hip hop artists. The video was also in heavy rotation on MTV Jams and MTV2 and the group was part of MTV™s exclusive “Discover & Download” program. Both “Drivin Down The Block” and “Love Hangover” were directed by Ethan Lader.

Currently the group is preparing for a Fall US tour after just completing Hip Hop™s biggest summer festival tour, Rock The Bells.
