

Kindred The Family Soul Set A Summer Vibe With Visual For Break It Down

Kindred The Family Soul gets ready for summer with their video for “Break It Down.” They take their romance to the roller rink which is warm nostalgia for the present. The single is from their recently released Auntie & Unc which maintains their hold as one of Philadelphia’s best. Aja, Fatin and video directors Embassy: Interactive & Hezekiah make love and marriage love look fun, cool and familiar. When they aren’t making music they are interviewing artists for their Kindred Presents series.Â

Â

Kindred The Family Soul Are Grateful For The Best Things

Kindred The Family Soul revel in a spirit of gratitude on their first single in a while “The Best Things.” Aja and Fatin’s sterling partnership in song comes across as warm and steady in the midst of a challenging time around the world. They recognize love as one of the ultimate blessings which reflects their personal relationship as a married couple. Their cozy vibe is the certainty needed right now and a welcome return to their sound. “The Best Things” is a survival song reminding everyone of what is most important as 2020 ends.Â

Watch Kindred The Family Soul Become Their Own Art Installation In Their Video For Welcome To My World

[youtube id="pXBb2xmA19Q"] In the video for "Welcome To My World," Kindred The Family Soul are the subjects of an art installation at The African-American Museum in Philadelphia. Konee& Rok directs the couple who leave their display to explore the museum at night. They attempt to return to their exhibition but miss their deadline to the amazement of a museum worker. "Welcome To My World" is from Kindred The Family Soul's Legacy Of Love album. Next week the duo will go on the Nu Soul Revival Tour with Musiq, Avery Sunshine and Lyfe Jennings. Tickets are on sale now.

Hezekiah Remixes Kindred The Family Soul's Another One

[youtube id="DIodowIui_Q"] Hezekiah of Johnny Popcorn connects with fellow Philly artists Kindred The Family Soul& and remixes "Another One" from their Legacy Of Love album. Aja and Fatin filmed a video for the remix among the rubble of a ruined building. Hezekiah sampled Ghostface Killer's "One" which added more grit to his version. Kindred The Family Soul is on the Nu Soul Revival tour with Lyfe Jennings, Avery

Sunshine and Musiq Soulchild. The tour kicks off February 3rd in North Carolina and tickets are on sale now.