

KING-The Greatest

[youtube id="UbpSV3gBRfk"] KING emerged in 2011 with their The Story EP and were acknowledged by several tastemakers and artists like Prince. In 2016, their debut album, We Are King will be released in February. "The Greatest" is the first single from their first full-length project and it is a tribute to Muhammad Ali who is depicted as an animated silhouette in the video. You can pre-order We Are King and instantly download "The Greatest."

King Performs Hey For Okay Acoustic

[youtube id="hcF6iyu6QFw"]

"Hey" is King's original song about universal love and they went into the Okayplayer studios to perform this piano and vocal version for the Okay Acoustic series.

King-Supernatural Live In New Orleans Record Store

[youtube id="fBtw1M0G8Es"]

King had the opportunity to open for Prince at this year's Essence Music Festival and NPR interviewed them and filmed their in-store performance of “Supernatural.” Three years ago they independently released The Story EP which caught the attention of Prince who invited them to meet him. Since meeting him they have been able to talk to him regularly about their music and receive career advice. The Story and an appearance on Robert Glasper’s Black Radio has built anticipation for their We Are King full-length album that will be released soon.

King-In The Meantime (Grammy Acoustic Performance)

[youtube id="nVj6kQhkkfk"]

King paid a visit to the Grammy headquarters in Santa Monica and gave an acoustic performance of songs from their Story EP and the new single “In The Meantime.”