

Rapsody: Oprah Featuring Leikeli47 Official Video

[youtube id="UTrIB5MabS8"]Rapsody gets animated about Black women entrepreneurship in the video for her single "Oprah" featuring Leikeli47 and Reyna Biddy. The money hustle starts with Rapsody shooting dice and later there's a major reference to Oprah's OWN network and plenty of cash with Harriet Tubman's face on the front. Black women achievers soon fill the screen and comment on their ability to make better lives for themselves standing on the shoulders of ancestors who picked cotton and paid dues for their descendants. Pioneering stylist Misa Hylton created everyone's look.Â Â

Lion Babe & Leikeli47 Are Partners On The Wave Official Video

[youtube id="LiFbVSr7RMg"]Lion Babe start a party with their single "The Wave" and Leikeli47 adds her verses to the song. The band members have a good time in the midst of color bursts and dancers. Their affection for '70s throwback style is reminiscent of '90s pop group Deee-Lite. The trip back to that era is fun and lowers any resistance to dancing especially when looking at the video. There has been no announcement regarding a new album but their recent output of this video, "Get Into The Party Life" and "Why" keeps fans wondering when will they release their next project.Â Â

Leikeli47: Pick A Color Stream

Leikeli47 graces her fans this week with the three songs grouped together as Pick A Color. “Girl Blunt” is the only song that was previously released but “No Reload” and “Roll Call” are new. Leikeli47 will follow up her 2017 Wash & Set debut album with Acrylic on November 15th.
