

Lunice Shares New Single Drop Down Featuring Lelf

Canadian producer Lunice has taken time away from producing for Maybach Music and Good Music for the moment to introduce his first solo album CCLX. “Drop Down” is an uptempo house track featuring Lelf who he previously collaborated with on the song “Umami” from his debut album Rioboi. S-Type and SOPHIE also got on the song that’s destined for heavy club rotation.

Lunice’s CCLX comes out tomorrow and it is described as film scores, hip-hop’s production and club music.
