

Stevie Wonder & The Roots Perform Isn't She Lovely & My Cherie Amour For Michelle Obama

<https://youtu.be/33ePlPQ9rPc>

Michelle Obama was a guest on The Tonight Show and said goodbye to America as the First Lady. Stevie Wonder serenaded her with “Isn't She Lovely” and “My Cherie Amour” with The Roots.

Michelle Obama Carpool With James Corden And Missy Elliott

[youtube id="ln3wAdRAim4"] First Lady Michelle Obama joins James Corden and Missy Elliott in carpool karaoke. The trio sings music from Stevie Wonder, Beyonce and Elliott's “Get Ur Freak On” and “This Is For My Girls” which was written for the Peace Corps Let Girls Learn Fund.

Media Questions Of The Week

Is Questlove correct when he says that pop needs more protest music?

Do we need a movie about the Obamas' love story or their presidency?

[youtube id="r9zBjRAGep0"]

Is J.Cole right about whites appropriating Black music or should he have kept his feelings to himself because whites are huge hip-hop consumers?

Michelle Obama's History Of Women In Soul Student Workshop

[youtube id="eggh075V0lQ"]

Michelle Obama hosted a workshop on The History Of Soul music and had Melissa Etheridge, Janelle Monae and Patti Labelle as her panelist. After answering questions from the student audience all three of the artists performed a song.