"100 Percent" was written and performed by dance music legend Leroy Burgess and Sonny Davenport under the name Aleem in 1985. Dutch producer Midas Hutch, has remade the song with the addition of the talkbox. His video for "100 Percent" is a series of '80's movie clips including scenes from Breakin' and Beatstreet. He's already used his love of '80's soul/funk to remix Dej Loaf's "Try Me."
