

Nahsym Kalif Drops Video For Gratuity

[youtube id="3jQw1w9bQYU"] Nahsym Kalif raps about his faith, Instagram and taking the LSAT in his song "Gratuity." The video is a simple walk through the streets while he passionately drops his verses. The Brooklyn native released his I Am Nahsym and MOMA albums independently within the past year while attending law school. His cerebral flow, tone and focus on the world around him brings Talib Kweli to mind but he is sonically attached to jazz and soul-influenced beats.
