

Obongjayar Drops Basseyy EP

Nigerian singer-songwriter Obongjayar released his Basseyy EP today. It is his second EP and it comes after the release of his festive video for “Endless” last month. The four-song EP has production from Moses Boyd, Melo-Zed, Lars Sylvest and vocals from London poet and musician James Massiah. The UK-based artist presented his first show for NTS Radio this month and you can listen to it here.

Obongjayar Releases Video For Endless From Upcoming EP

[youtube id="Lj0rSAf2oAk"] Obongjayar is a London-based artist from Nigeria and he debuted his first single "Creeping" last year. His music sounds and feels like a poetic meditation inspired by hip-hop. The video for "Endless" is mystical and moves with the pace of the song's drum. Obongjayar explains the concept of "Endless,"

"Explores the celebration of life in death. How we never really die but live through our work and our effects on the people around us and our environment."

"Endless" is from Obongjayar's upcoming second EP.
