

Media Questions Of The Week

1. Is RuPaul really going to make an album or a song with Honey Boo Boo?

2. Why are artists so upset about Pandora wanting to lower the royalty rates they pay to artists when terrestrial radio and Youtube pay no royalties? And in many cases terrestrial radio is paid promotional fees to play most major label music? And cable and satellite radio pay significantly less? Or how about the fact that most artists never receive their full royalties from ASCAP and BMI?

3. Will The Game's Jesus Piece album satisfy the fans?

---

Pandora May Shut Down

Amid mounting royalty payments web radio service Pandora may shut down.

---

Pandora Listeners Double With iPhone

Pandora's service has increased with the release of the new iPhone 3G. One more example of why terrestrial radio does not have the final say on listening habits in America.