

Prince's Paisley Park Will Be Turned Into A Museum And Open This Year

Prince's Paisley Park compound will be open to the public in October for tours. His sister, Tyka Nelson released a statement today describing Prince's desire to turn his home into a museum. "Opening Paisley Park is something that Prince always wanted to do and was actively working on. Only a few hundred people have had the rare opportunity to tour the estate during his lifetime," Nelson said. "Now fans from around the world will be able to experience Prince's world for the first time, as we open the doors to this incredible place." Fans will get to see where Prince gave private concerts, recorded music, filmed videos, see where his clothes were made and a host of rare memorabilia. The museum will open October 6th and tickets go on sale Friday at OfficialPaisleyPark.com.

Prince's Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame Induction Performance Coming Out On Limited Edition Purple Vinyl

Prince's electrifying performance of "My Guitar Gently Weeps" for the 2004 Rock and Roll Hall of Fame ceremony will be available on purple vinyl August 12th. Prince was inducted into the hall in 2004 and his guitar solo during the jam session with Tom Petty, Jeff Lynne, Steve Winwood and Dhani Harrison was another moment of his rare musical brilliance. Time Life and the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame released the first pressing in April on black vinyl. The recording sold out quickly and made it to #13 on Billboard's Vinyl Albums chart. They have also made the video of the evening's performance digitally available on iTunes for $1.99. The purple vinyl edition of the recording will list at $25.98 wherever vinyl is sold.

Rock and Roll Hall Of Fame Live: Volume 1 Tracklisting:

Side One

"Johnny B. Goode" – Chuck Berry with Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band (1995)

"Tenth Avenue Freeze-Out" – Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band (1999)

"A Change is Gonna Come" – Al Green (1995)

"The Train Kept A-Rollin'" – Jeff Beck, Jimmy Page, Ron Wood, Joe Perry, Flea and Metallica (2009)

"Iron Man" – Metallica (2006)

Side Two

"Woodstock" – James Taylor (1997)

"Sunshine of Your Love" – Cream (1993)

"Blitzkrieg Bop" – Green Day

"(I Can't Get No) Satisfaction" – Mick Jagger, Bruce Springsteen and the Rock Hall Jam Band (1988)

“While My Guitar Gently Weeps” – Tom Petty, Jeff Lynne, Steve Winwood, Dhani Harrison and Prince (2004)

Media Questions Of The Week

Why didn't Frank Ocean's Boys Don't Cry album come out on Friday as indicated on his website earlier in the week?

Will Prince's family be able to stop the sale of Paisley Park?

[youtube id="PY96wa0J0ng"]

Will Gene Simmons, who is a notorious critic of rap music, listen to the song his daughter Sophie wrote for Rick Ross?

Online Prince Museum Opens

The Prince Online Museum launched today and it's an archive of many websites Prince launched over the past 20 years. Sam

Jennings, who was the webmaster of Prince's NPG Music Club site, is the director of the online museum. Despite Prince's refusal to have his music online he still used the internet a great deal from the '90's until 2013. Several people who worked with him on his many different sites are involved with the online museum. Prince was recognized by the Webbys for his online contributions and won a Lifetime Achievement Award in 2006. The museum has started with 12 of Prince's most popular sites and you can see it all here.