

Busta Rhymes-Oh God Feat. O.T. Genesis & Raekwon

Busta Rhymes returns to his Golden Era flow with O.T. Genesis and Raekwon for “Oh God.”

Talib Kweli-Violations Feat. Raekwon

[youtube id="yWKIaD7PotU"]

Talib Kweli and Raekwon question the establishment with the song and visuals for “Violations.”

Raekwon-Rich and Black Feat. Nas

[youtube]1WFTDSx_-uk&[/youtube]

Raekwon’s Shaolin vs. Wu-Tang video was directed by Woodworks and shot in Oslo, Norway. New York rap is not dead.

Raekwon-Ason Jones

[youtube]rJtGqCyiMOA&[/youtube]

Today would've been Ol' Dirty Bastard's 42nd birthday. His Wu brother Raekwon acknowledges this day with a sweet tribute that makes Dirty's absence more profound. How many rappers do we have in the mainstream today that act like artists and not just street-branded corporate spokespeople?