

Ruby Velle & The Soulphonics Debut New Single Call Out My Name

Ruby Velle & The Soulphonics are a vintage soul band from Atlanta. The group has been building its exposure touring as an opening act for Erykah Badu and Kendrick Lamar. The indie band already has a presence on Billboard's Heatseekers chart, iTunes and Spotify. "Call Out My Name" is their new Motown-inspired single and it leads the way for their second album State Of All Things. Their sophomore effort will arrive via PledgeMusic next month.
