

Seba Kaapstad Share Video For Don't

[youtube id="xc7a_vzFqh8"]Seba Kaapstad share another video from their upcoming debut album. The visual for "Don't" is murky and mysterious as singer Zoe Modiga comes through with piercing emotion as she runs and walks through the night. There are moments when she stops to look into the camera and then the scenery changes again into something else. The South African based group is looking forward to the release of Thina on May 17th.Â

Seba Kaapstad Drop New Single Bye

Seba Kaapstad is getting closer to the release of their debut album Thina next month and today they drop the new single "Bye." The calm atmospheric song with a dialogue between singers Manana and Zoe as they navigate the first stages of attraction. The first few moments of a meeting between strangers are awkward but the tension is broken after the quick introduction.Â

Thina by Seba Kaapstad

Seba Kaapstad Share Video For Africa Announce Album Release Date

Seba Kaapstad's debut their video for "Africa" as they get ready for the release of their first album Thina in May. The purple-hued clip is a meditation on the continent from the band that hails from there and Europe. The song about truth and finding home is a mix of R&B, jazz, African pop and hip-hop. Seba Kaapstad's Thina will officially be available May 17th.

[youtube id="fpwW01NZxcY"]

Meet Seba Kaapstad On Their Debut Single Breathe

Seba Kaapstad is a neo-soul group from South Africa and they are introducing themselves with the debut single "Breathe." The quartet pulls from soul, jazz and hip-hop which can all be heard on "Breathe's" blend of tight beats and flowy open chords. They have signed with Mello Music Group and on the way to completing their first album.

Breathe by Seba Kaapstad