

Sevana Releases Video For Set Me On Fire

Jamaican singer Sevana has a video for her current single “Set Me On Fire.” She walks through a serene background of a beach and she sings about an abusive relationship from the past. Her need to write about the dysfunction of the relationship was therapeutic and created one of the most memorable songs from her 2020 Be Somebody EP. The singer was also seen last week when she gave an NPR Tiny Desk concert.Â
