Junglepussey drops another preview of Pregnant With Success with a video for “Dear Diary.” The song is produced by her main collaborator ShyGuy and she says Pregnant With Success is “definitely an ode to my mother, to all mothers, to anyone who’s ever planted a seed, to anyone who’s ever created something, to anyone who’s ever waited patiently for something to come into fruition.” Junglepussey just gave a talk at Yale University for their Fall lecture series and you can see it here.
