

Sims Announces 10-Year Anniversary Edition Of Lights Out Paris June 30th

In celebration of the 10-year anniversary of Lights Out Paris, Sims announces the release of the album's deluxe edition, out June 30th on Doomtree Records. Available digitally, and on vinyl for the very first time, the deluxe edition of Lights Out Paris contains newly remastered audio, full written lyrics, and nine new bonus tracks, including remixes from original album producers Lazerbeak, Paper Tiger, MK Larada, and Joe Mabbott, as well as Sims' rare 2004 False Hopes Four EP. The iTunes instant grat track "15 Blocks (Lazerbeak Remix)" can be streamed here and purchased with the digital pre-order here. Doomtree Records is also offering an exclusive deluxe vinyl pre-order through their webstore, which includes all of the content listed above, as well as a double LP, large fold-out poster, limited t-shirt/patch/button/sticker pack, and special access to a private Sims Livestream performance and hangout on July 15th.

Lights Out Paris was originally released in 2005, and marked the first full-length album from the Doomtree rapper. Featuring staples like "Key Grip (Fax)" and "No Homeowners," the album includes guest verses from early associates Toki Wright and Crescent Moon, and fellow Doomtree members P.O.S, Dessa, Cecil Otter, and Mike Mictlan. Fans have been able to watch Sims grow and evolve over the past decade, showcased in more recent releases like Bad Time Zoo, Wildlife, and Field Notes, and now this deluxe edition reissue of Lights Out Paris gives us a definitive glimpse into where it all began.

The EP also serves as a preview to the upcoming "Good Time Zoo Tour," which kicks off in a few weeks in Salt Lake City, UT. Tour dates are listed below.

Sims is a MN native and founding member of the independent hip-hop collective Doomtree (which also includes P.O.S, Dessa, Cecil Otter, Mike Mictlan, Lazerbeak, and Paper Tiger). He found solace in rap and R&B music, nurturing a love for mainstream hits as well as then-underground artists such as the Wu-Tang Clan. Sims' music is drawn a lot more from human interaction than from music, I listen and try to understand how people function. Through touring, hard work, and paying dues, he solidified his calling. Combining thoughts and sounds, Sims listens to the world around him.

Fellow Doomtree cohort Cecil Otter is an emcee & producer Cecil has contributed to over a dozen records and most recently released Wugazi: 13 Chambers with Swiss Andy, an intricate mash-up of Fugazi and Wu-Tang Clan. Check it out HERE. Cecil is currently recording his follow up album to 2009's Rebel Yellow currently titled Porcelain Revolver.
