

Slum Village's Young RJ Releases Video For Huh?

[youtube id="_r55QFYw4qc"] Young RJ questions corruption in his video for "Huh?" The rapper and producer steps outside his place in Slum Village is getting ready for the release of his solo album BLAQ ROYALT. Young RJ's 's affiliation with Slum Village started when he was a teenager and learned from J.Dilla how to program a drum machine. He used those skills to help Dilla complete "Climax" from their seminal Fantastic Vol.2. After Dilla left the group, and Baatin became ill Young RJ solidified his place in the group with his work on Trinity. By 2012 he officially joined the group and after five years of touring and two albums he returned to his studio to begin his solo album.

"Creating my first solo project gives me a different sense of freedom, although my Music is based on the Slum Village philosophy of sound, people will now get insight into one of the men behind the music," states Young RJ.

Elzhi-February Official Video

[youtube id="8ZTcta21Dh0"] Elzhi pays tribute to his mentor and friend, J.Dilla in the video for "February." J.Dilla's birthday and death day is in February and Elzhi's memory of the time is a gloomy scene played out in bed, on the field playing football, drinking and cuddling with a girlfriend. Elzhi's Lead Poison comes out March 25th.
