

N.W.A. To Be Inducted Into The Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame 2016 Class

The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame announced their 2016 class and N.W.A. will be inducted at the ceremony April 8th at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, New York. Tickets for the ceremony will go on sale in February and HBO will broadcast the show. News of the induction ends an incredible year for N.W.A. after their biopic Straight Outta Compton, became the highest grossing film ever from a Black director. N.W.A. is the fifth rap act to be inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame along with Grandmaster Flash and the Furious Five, Run-D.M.C., The Beastie Boys and Public Enemy.

Media Questions Of The Week

Would Straight Outta Compton have been a better movie if the violent incidents involving Tairrie B, Michel'le or Dee Barnes had been included?

Why didn't Beyonce do an interview for Vogue magazine's September 2015 issue even though she's on the cover?

Is Will Smith's reboot of the Fresh Prince Of Bel-Air right on time?

Media Questions Of The Week

Do movie theaters really need to hire extra security for the showing of Straight Outta Compton?

[youtube id="yJl2IwzeaT0"]

Why was Janelle Monae's statement about the Black Lives Matter movement stopped at the 14:45 mark at the end of her performance on The Today Show?

Will Jay Leno's public disappointment with a lack of diversity in late-night television open the door for someone new?

Ice Cube Responds To Rap Genius Interpretations Of Straight Outta Compton

Ice Cube takes a look at interpretations of his lyrics to “Straight Outta Compton” from Rap Genius contributors and gives his feedback in this video for Vanity Fair. Straight Outta Compton, the movie opens in theaters this Friday.