

Terrace Martin & Alex Isley Have A Visual For 2 Step In The Living Room

Terrace Martin and Alex Isley released the video for “2 Step In The Living Room.” A couple becomes nostalgic about their relationship as they dance together in the house surrounded by memories. Martin and Isley later appear in the clip at the piano and walking around the room. Their collaborative album, I Left My Heart In Ladera came out in 2023. They previously shared the video for their cover of Sade’s “Paradise” and fans hope that “Honey” will be the next song to have a video.

Listen: Terrace Martin-Drones Album Stream

Terrace Martin arrives with his Drones album. The Crenshaw native revealed in an interview with Stereogum that he was inspired by the disconnect people have from each other in society. He spoke with Kendrick Lamar about what it means to be a drone and the title track was born. According to Martin, Drones is about the oneness of us all and how we are all living like androids. Lamar, Snoop Dogg, Channel Tres, Smino, Leon Bridges and Robert Glasper are among the guests on the album. There is funk, R&B, hip-hop, jazz and more being expressed on Drones. Martin describes Black life in America as Black Disneyland and this is the theme of Drones.Â

Robert Glasper, 9th Wonder, Kamasi Washington & Terrace Martin Release Album As The Dinner Party

Robert Glasper, 9th Wonder, Kamasi Washington and Terrace Martin have released an album as Dinner Party. The jazz, hip-hop, soul project has a comfort zone between 9th Wonder's production and the live approach from the musicians and guest singers. The warm vibes of the album address love and the current strife in the country around the response to police brutality. The friends and colleagues chose the Dinner Party moniker to reflect years of friendship, conversations over dinner and working together.Â Â
