

Wyclef Jean Is The Host Of #RunThatBack

Wyclef Jean has a new pop culture show called #RunThatBack currently being streamed on YouTube. The first four episodes are available and there are guest appearances from a variety of artists and industry legends. Lena Waithe listens to an unreleased Whitney Houston song and Clive Davis comes on the show to talk about his upcoming biopic about the late singer. Kirk Franklin listens and shares his reactions to Jean's remix of his song "Love Theory." Rapsody and A$AP Ferg are the next scheduled artists to appear on the program. The show will debut a new episode every Thursday until the end of October and Jean calls it sharing conversations with his friends because he's not that good at interviews.Â
