

LL Cool J Releases Video For 30 Decembers Feat. The Overlordian

LL Cool J has new visuals from his native New York City in the video for “30 Decembers,” featuring The Overlordian. He takes a tour of the subway, Queens, and Manhattan and realizes how much things have changed literally over the time span of 30 Decembers. The subway no longer uses tokens and people no longer read newspapers because they are playing with their smartphones. He can walk around freely because he has on a mask. This is the latest video from The FORCE that was released in 2024 and is exclusively produced by Q-Tip and one of the best albums of LL’s career.
