

Viola Davis & Debra Martin Chase To Produce Drama Based On Detroit Prosecutor Kym Worthy

Viola Davis, Julius Tennon and Debra Martin Chase are producing a courtroom drama based on Detroit's Wayne County prosecutor Kym Worthy. Conviction will air on ABC and focus on Worthy's career that has made her famous from high-profile cases like the death of Malice Green while in police custody and former mayor Kwame Kilpatrick. There is no word on who might take the role of Worthy.

Media Questions Of The Week

[youtube id="dbSl-SPyHtg"]

Are you going to watch the new Thursday night legal drama, "How To Get Away With Murder" that stars Viola Davis when it premieres in the Fall?

Will the fans be happier with a new film about Aaliyah starring B.Simone and a script written by Zane?

Is The Nation Of Islam correct in its analysis that Allah is the source of hip-hop's influence?